Institute Archives

The Archives of the Cleveland Institute of Art (located in the Gund Library) is the historical record of the Institute and includes the Institute scrapbook (a clipping file from 1882-present), photographs, Institute publications, Institute catalogs, Institute posters, Institute exhibition announcements, and other special collections. The scrapbook contains clippings from the local, regional, and national press and is indexed by personal name. There is also name access to the photograph collection. There is plenty of information on Stanczak in the Institute’s archives. None of the materials are available for loan. Photocopying and photographing arrangements vary according to the specific collection and are permitted only with the permission of the library staff. You may consult the archives: Monday-Friday 9:00-4:30. Please call in advance, 216-421-7440.
