STARTING A STUDENT GROUP AT CIA

1. You need at least 6 other students that are interested in being a part of the group.
2. You need to organize and create bi-laws.
3. You need to ask approval of the Student Leadership Council for funding. This step may take about a month to be voted on by SLC.
4. Once your group is recognized as a CIA student group, you must meet regularly and have representation at SLC meetings.

OUTLINE FOR BI-LAWS

Article I – Name of the group
What is the official name of the group?

Article II – Purpose
What do you hope to achieve by bringing this group on campus?
What are the kinds of things that you are going to do in this group?

Article III – Organization
Who will make up the organization of this group?

Article IV – Officers
How is the leadership of the group made up? Is there a president or is leadership shared?
It’s your group … you tell me.

Article V – Meetings
When are you going to meet? Where are they going to be held? How often? What kinds of things are you going to do there? Are you going to have planning, speakers, etc…?
