2022-2023 Verification Worksheet
Dependent Student- Tracking Group V1

Your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Federal regulations require financial aid offices to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA prior to finalizing your eligibility for need-based financial aid. To confirm that you provided correct information on your 2022-2023 FAFSA, CIA staff will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents necessary to complete the verification process. If there are differences, your FAFSA information will be updated with the correct information. You and at least one parent must complete and sign this worksheet, and submit any required documents to complete the verification process, to the CIA Office of Financial Aid. If clarification is after the verification process is begun, the CIA Office of Financial Aid will request additional information to finish the verification process. If you have questions about verification, contact the CIA Office of Financial Aid as soon as possible so that your financial aid can be finalized and able to be disbursed to your account.
