

INSTITUTIONAL CROSS-REGISTRATION AGREEMENT

The Cleveland Institute of Music agrees to a cross-registration agreement with
The Cleveland Institute of Art. Both institutions agree to abide by the following policy and procedures:

- Cross-registration is available to full-time students for the fall and spring terms.
- Students may take one undergraduate course (plus accompanying lab, if required) with any fees required by the host institution beyond tuition (lab fees, registration fees, etc.) to be paid by the student each term.
- Students must be in good standing at the home institution.
- The host institution determines the date when students are permitted to cross-register.
- Registration for the course is granted on a space-available basis.
- The host institution determines selected courses not open to cross-registration.
- The student may cross-register in only one institution per term.
- The host institution will send a grade report to the home institution upon completion of the term.
- Each host institution retains the sole academic discretion to remove a cross-registered student from its class based upon a violation of the host institution's policies and procedures, and retains the sole academic discretion in determining the grade to be awarded to any cross-registered student for a class.
- Each institution shall indemnify the other for any claim, loss, damage, and/or action arising from the negligent acts of willful misconduct of that institution and/or its officers, employees, faculty, and/or agents.
